THE 1976 MARIAN
FOR KAREN

*I say to you today
my friends...*

*that in spite of
the difficulties
of the moment-*

I still have a dream.

It is a dream
deeply rooted in the AMERICAN
DREAM.

MARTIN LUTHER KING

I'd take a trip... maybe a few thousand trips.—A pound, a car, land in Canada.
—I would very graciously donate it to my favorite charity. Any more silly questions?

AS A SENIOR, WHAT IS YOUR DREAM?

—To live it up all my life.—To become a forest
ranger.—To contact extra-terrestrial intelligence.—To get to a good school, get a good job meet a rich man, get married, have a baby, and own an English Sheep Dog.—To graduate from this school.—After I have settled down with a family, I am going to venture into the automoti-business until I become a millionaire, hopefully before the day I die.—To learn alot about the people in my class, many of whom I will never see again after this year!

Marian Bicentennial Contribution

For freshmen, high school is the beginning of a dream—the start of a new and meaningful life. Their major problems seem to be adjusting to new surroundings and fitting into the Marian Community. During the year, they meet new people and become involved in various activities. Although it's a big change, they soon find themselves a part of the community.

Juniors meet a real challenge—choosing their own courses, thinking about a career and beginning to carry out lifelong dreams. Though separated by course selections, the Junior class remains closely bound. At the traditional Ring Mass the members of the class are united into one body and continue to strive for the benefit of the entire MARIAN community.

At Tech, students learn certain skills directly related to the dream they wish to pursue. They strive for perfection in cosmetology, drafting, electrical construction, and auto body. They seek excellence as nursing assistants, commercial artists, masons, carpenters, and welders. Knowledge, coupled with valuable experience, serves as an asset in each particular field. Along with this necessary work experience, students find themselves in a social situation where they encounter people from other schools. Although each is unique, all work for the same purpose to acquire a skill, to pursue a dream.

The student council is a group of concerned Marian students formed to represent the student body. In order to be a member of the student council one must be an honest, trustworthy person who will try his best to help our christian community. We have found this to be true as the student council this year has done its best to better Marian.

Father Coleman administers Holy Communion to the secretary of our student council, Vickie Leskoski.

ring day

A class ring is something that should be treasured forever by a person. Every time you look at it, it should remind you of all the good times you had as a teenager in high school. Misty watercolor memories of the way we were ... THE WAY WE WERE.

The turning of one's class ring has long been a treasured tradition among the students at Marian. By turning someone's class ring, you are showing them that you wish them the best of luck in whatever they may do.

USHERETTES: C. Fritz, P. Kocha, J. Shickora, Mr. Gallagher (Athletic Director), B. Brill.

Aides form an integral part of the Marian community, serving to make activities, school functions, daily routines pleasant and smooth-running. Chapel and chaplain aides assist with caring for chapel supplies, vestments, and vessels and in setting up for various liturgical services. Cafeteria aides keep the lunch mods running efficiently and are of great assistance to the cafeteria personnel. Fr. Shelonis and the A/V aides assure teachers and students of prompt delivery of equipment to enhance studies. Salesroom aides under Fr. Tucci's direction make buying at the school store a pleasure. Library aides keep books up to date and available for circulation; while the Usherettes keep the sports fans circulating.

Liturgy is of central importance to the Marian community. All important occasions are celebrated in the context of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The faculty and student body witness to their dedication to Christ through their active participation. The annual retreat provides an opportunity for spiritual growth and reflection, and the May Procession evidences love for Mary.

Christmas time is special at Marian, as all over. The annual play, highlighted by the beautiful Nativity scene, reminds us of the true spirit of the season and furnishes us with a joyous experience.

Majorettes provide exciting half-time entertainment with their twirling batons and high-stepping routines. Pictured above are: L. Pereira, V. Martin, and M. Camelliri, co-captains, with S. Pollock, G.A. Nihen, T. Davison, K. Sema, R. Kosciolek, T. Svez, M. Anderson, and P. Oncidi behind them. The girls engender enthusiasm among Marian supporters.

The Drill Team of Marian High School is recognized for its attention-getting performances and colorful techniques. Creating new drills, practicing to perfection and performing professionally are skills and disciplines called for by the goals of the Drill Team members. Below, moving from left to right, are shown the members of the 1975-76 team: A. Bassler, S. John, M. Gurka, L. Ondo, P. Herman, B. Yanuskiewicz, K. Gillespie, P. Kocha, J. Milan, L. Tinninis, L. Sweeney, S. Classic, J. Coleman, M. Holland, and A. Mammarella. Performing at games and pep-rallies gives the girls an opportunity to demonstrate their skill, and allows the spectators to appreciate beauty and the Marian spirit.

Senior Appreciation Day was a first at Marian High School. A day set aside to express gratitude to the senior class for their efforts to make the spirit and atmosphere at Marian alive and glowing with Christian concern and service, January 28, 1976 proved to be a delightful experience for the honored class and for those who shared it with them. Left: E. Dvorshock puts on a big smile as he serve hot chocolate to some excited seniors. Below Seated at the head table are the Student Council officers, the principal, Fr. Coleman, and the vice-principal, Mr. Malarkey.

CAST OF "CAMELOT"

Right: Guided by Father Whalen, some members of the stage crew get down to the business of setting up props for the play while Jacki Riotto (left) takes time out to relax and watch everyone else work for a change. Painting scenery and building castles are also part of their work.

Below: Sister Clare Amata interrupts her hectic schedule to demonstrate a curtsy to the Ladies of Camelot who are watching her closely.

Above: Patty Bonner, "Guenevere," and Kevin Boyle, "Arthur," ham it up for the photographer during one of the many evening rehearsals.

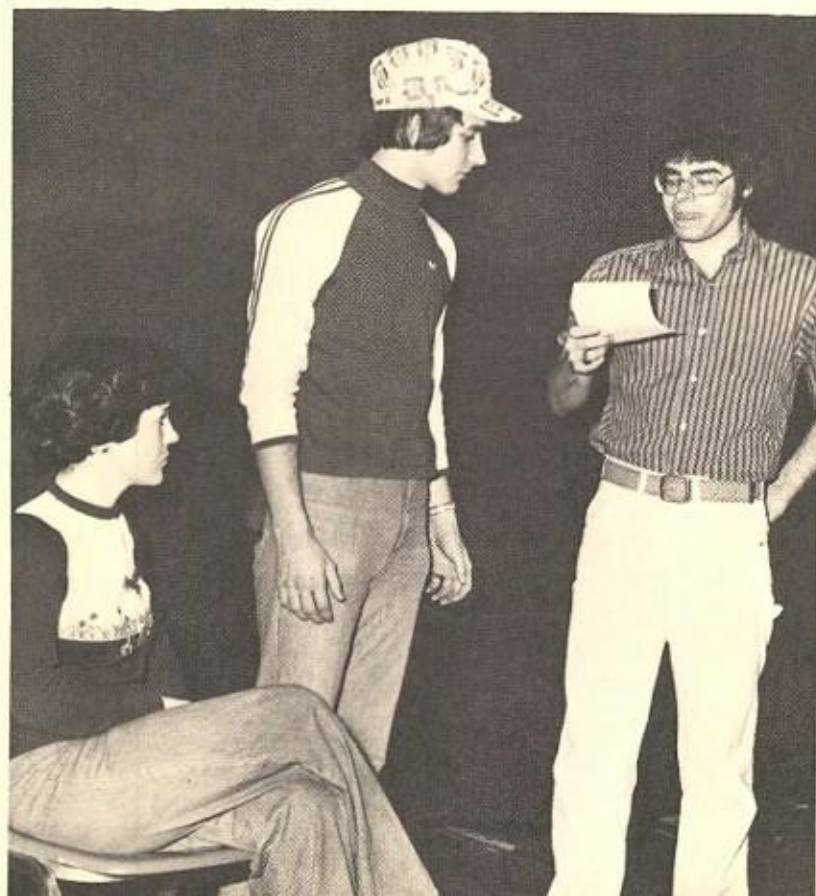

S. Maria Martin directs the action on stage, as Carl Marzen learns a new song with S. Daniel's help.

That
We May

Remember

Through her actions she gave so much of herself
to those she came in contact with . . .
In only seventeen years
she has reached
her ultimate destination;
whereas, for most of us
it will take many years . . .
For these, and for other reasons
that cannot be expressed
in words,
we, the staff
of the 1976 MARIAN,
dedicate this book to . . .

When
I was young I had these dreams
of going places, doing things.
— Of meeting people, finding friends,
and keeping up with current trends.

High school days
soon came and brought
a clearer view of what I sought.
I learned about my fellow man
and found out who and what I am.

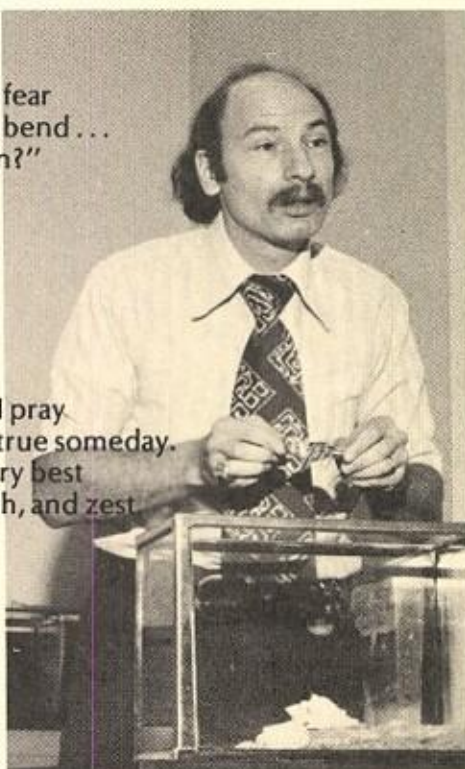

Time
progressed by leaps and bounds;
before I knew it, I had found . . .
my days of Marian were numbered,
where they went I still do wonder.

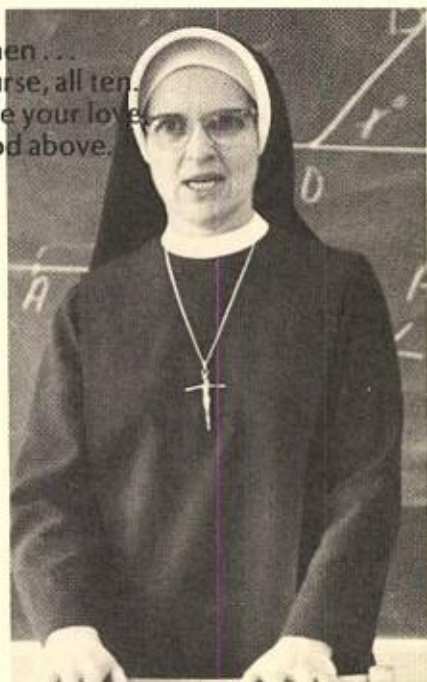

"And so, my friend,
the end draws near."
I say that not without the fear
of what's to come around the bend ...
"Will we ever meet again?"

If
we don't, for you I pray
that all your dreams come true someday.
You deserve the very best
—happiness, love, health, and zest

If
we do, and until then ...
obey the rules,—of course, all ten.
Keep the faith, don't lose your love,
place your trust in God above.

THANKS

High School is . . .
 Cheering
 and winning,
 Trying
 and losing,
 Sharing
 and caring,
 Loving
 and leaving,
 Dreaming
 and having
 those dreams
 come true.

The staff of the 1976 MARIAN extends sincerest appreciation to all who have helped to make our efforts a success . . .

To our principal, Father Coleman, for his genuine interest and generous support—

To Mr. David Keyes for his guidance and helpful comments throughout the year—

To Mr. Andrew Santora and the photographers of Hess Studio for their patience and ingenuity—

To Mr. Anthony Gennaro and the student photographers for their willingness to help and fine results—

To Sister Marian Gerard for hours spent on the book and efforts to help us grow as mature people—

Last, but surely not least, to our kind patrons—without their help the DREAM of our 1976 yearbook could never have come true. God bless you.
